SEE SUPPLEMENT with to-day's Gazette containing the premium list of the Alexandria & Fairfax Agricultural Fair Association.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, Sept. 7, 1880.
For the Middle States higher barometer, cooler, northerly winds, cloudy or partly cloudy weather and numerous rains.

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR.—The Hebrew New Year, 1881, which began Sunday evening at sundown terminated last night at sundown with the reformed congregations, while it continued until sundown this evening with the Orthodox Israelites. Business was generally suspended among the Hebrews in this city yesterday, and impressive services were held in the synagogue on Washington street, in the morning, conducted by Rabbi Sessler, the features of the occasion being the exposing to view of the five Books of Moses written on parchment, and the blowing of the ram's horn, which has reference to the beginning, "when God created the heavens and the earth," also to remind the Israelites to prepare themselves for the day of atonement, which is the next great festival in the Hebrew calendar. The attendance at the synagogue was large, and the music by the choir was finely rendered. Among the Gentile visitors present was Rev. Mr. Suter, of Christ church.

THE YELLOW FEVER SCARE.—Mayor Smith telegraphed to Health Officer Townsend, of Washington, this morning, to know if anything had been heard from the suspected vessel, the Emma J. Lewis, reported to be on her way from Cuba or Washington with yellow fever on board, and received an answer, "that nothing had been heard from her." Many think the rumor regarding the reported approaching vessel a false one, but whether it is or not, there is no cause for anxiety on the part of the people of Alexandria, as the health authorities have taken all necessary precautions to prevent the introduction of the fever in our midst.

Dr. Meade and two assistants of the Health Department of Washington passed down the river in a United States steam launch this afternoon to visit the suspected vessel, which is reported to be off Maryland Point.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—Now that the quacking season is at its height all sorts of accidents must be looked for, from the slight pricking with shot to the shooting off of legs, &c. The ball was opened yesterday in Pompy's marsh, near the burning ground, by a young man named John Hall, accidentally shooting another young man named Jefferson Hall in the face, badly though not seriously injuring him, although he will probably carry the marks of the gunning season of 1880 with him to the grave. There was also some wild shooting in the marsh to day, but owing to the sharp look out kept by the rangers upon each other it was attended, so far as heard of, with no serious results.

WEDDING.—Miss Sybil Clara Eldridge, the beautiful daughter of Captain M. Eldridge, formerly of this city, but now of Winchester, Va., was married to day to the Kent Street Presbyterian Church, at that place, by Rev. Dr. Graham, to Charles H. Heustis, esq., assistant manager of the Philadelphia Times. The young bride has many friends in this city, who wish her all the happiness possible in her journey through life. Clouds must come to all, but may there be just enough of them to her pathway, after a long life, to make the sunset all the more glorious.

WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION. The W. C. T. U., which holds its weekly meetings at the rooms of the Reform Club, expects a delegation of ladies from Washington to make a address at that place to-morrow at 4 p. m. A large attendance of the members is desired, and all others interested in the work are cordially invited to be present.

THE WEATHER.—This city and neighborhood was visited at night about half past eight o'clock with quite a heavy rain, which continued until early this morning, cooling the hot and oppressive atmosphere which has prevailed for the past week or two. The rain was very much needed, and the farmers hailed it with joy. The growing crops have been greatly benefited.

POLICE ITEMS.—The Mayor presided at police headquarters this morning, and fined Wm. Harris, Shepherd, Delman, and Maggie (names), all of whom, each, for keeping cock shoes without a license. All of them paid their fines and were discharged.

David Lomax, colored, for disorderly conduct, and threatening his mother, was sent to jail for ninety days.

CORPORATION COURT.—Hon. A. W. Chilton, Judge presiding.—The will of Rebecca J. Bartleson was admitted to probate, and G. W. D. Ramsey qualified as executor.

Daniel W. Griffith vs. Kuzzy Griffith et al.; chancery; decree for sale.

PIEDMONT FAIR.—We have received the premium list of the Piedmont Agricultural Society for their annual fair, commencing on the 12th proximo, at Calpeper Court House.

The case of the boy Edward Bellomy, for whose arrest a warrant was issued yesterday by his mother, Mary Frances Bellomy, charging him with an assault upon her with a shot gun, knife, &c., did not come up for trial to-day. John Bellomy, the husband of Mrs. Bellomy, entered suit for divorce some time ago, and his case was granted by the Corporation Court. The boy sided with his father in the family troubles, and when his mother entered the house occupied by her husband, and attempted to carry off some articles she claimed as personal property, he assaulted her.

A Word to the Wise is Sufficient.
The reddening leaves begin to fall;
Let summer clouds hang over all;
Precocious chestnuts soon will drop,
And frost fall on the mountain top;
Prepare for winter's winds and snow,
For you feel its shrill shrill blow,
Then go at once to STANBURY'S store,
And have your stores all made secure
(McBurney's Building).

CHARLOTTESVILLE WOOLEN MILLS.

The Charlottesville Woolen Mills, this season in particular, have turned out some of the handsomest and best styles ever produced anywhere. The house of ISAAC RICHBERG has the agency for these well known and celebrated goods in the city, and have received their first FALL and WINTER SUPPLY for this season, and they are now ready for inspection. They are prepared to furnish GOOD SUITS at as low prices as any house in this or any other city. A call will tell all they ask.

A whirlwind struck Richmond on Sunday, and a heavy thunderstorm prevailed there last night. The whirlwind struck the lower portion of the city, overthrowing several buildings, prostrating fences and trees and doing other damage, including the tobacco factories of Mr. Hancock and George Campbell & Son, and badly damaging the roof of George Cameron's building.

N. Boyd's tobacco factory, James Britton, a watchman on a vessel, was lifted up bodily by the wind, and dashed to the ground at the dock and had his thigh broken. The storm was accompanied by thunder and lightning. The weather for the past few days has been excessively hot, the thermometer during the middle hours of the day ranging from 98° to 102° in the shade. Several prostrations from heat are reported, but none fatal.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPH NEWS

The Compromise Proposition.
RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 7.—The Waik of to-day publishes the following important correspondence:
FISHERSVILLE, AUGUSTA CO., VA., August 28, 1880.
Gen. Wm. Mahone, Chairman of the Readjuster State Committee.

Sir,—A communication from West-Stock, Va., of July 31st last, with the names of Hugh Logan, R. J. Roberts, and 262 others addressed to me, as "Chairman of the State central committee," has been received, which reads as follows: "In pursuance of a call of the democratic voters of Shenandoah county, Virginia, in mass meeting assembled, in West-Stock, July 31, 1880, we respectfully request the placing of an electoral ticket in the field, to be composed of five electors from each wing of the democratic party in Virginia, the eleventh elector to be selected by the national democratic committee of the United States, in order that the democrats of Virginia may cast their votes for Hancock and English. And for the accomplishment of the same, we respectfully ask that you will take such action as will lead to the leaving five electors pledged to the support of Hancock and English, and that after such action you request the national democratic committee to appoint an elector, who, with the five electors selected by the other wing of the democratic party, shall compose the eleven electors for Virginia, for whom we will cast our votes."

You doubtless have received, as chairman of the readjuster State committee, a like communication. In deference to the request therein contained, the great importance of the object sought to be accomplished, and especially as the parties with which we are connected each claim to desire the election of Hancock and English over their opponents—Garfield and Arthur—if you approve of the object and plan of the communication above recited, I respectfully propose that we convene our respective State committees and electors at Richmond, on the 10th day of September next, for the purpose of considering the subject of a joint electoral ticket as proposed, and, if practicable, a conference of the committees on the same be had. If I succeed in uniting the two parties on one electoral ticket, it will assure the State of Virginia for Hancock and English; avert strife and animosity in Virginia; and a thrill of joy to every democratic heart throughout the Union, and it may be the pivotal point in the election of President and Vice President of the U. S. An early reply will oblige

Yours, &c.,
AUSALOM KOINER,
Chairman State Com. Con.

PETERSBURG, VA., Sept. 1, 1880.
Dear Sir—Your communication of Aug. 28 is received.

You condition my action, and hypothetically your proposal for a meeting of our respective State committees and electors upon my approval of the Shenandoah petition and the scheme it proposes.

My action upon the proposal you make cannot be based upon my views of the Shenandoah petition and the scheme it proposes; nor is this the place to express them, nor is my action here taken upon any fear I have that the electoral vote of Virginia is in danger—that it is not already, and in my judgment beyond a peradventure, secured to Hancock and English.

It is out of respect for your proposal otherwise considered that I make compliance in that I will summon the State committee and electors of our party to meet at the Whig office, Richmond, Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., at 9 o'clock, at which time your communication of the 28th August, and any proposal you may have to make, will be submitted. Very respectfully,
Hon. A. Koiner, Chairman, &c., Fishersville, Augusta Co., Va.

Violent Storm.
PETERSBURG, September 7.—The city and its vicinity were visited last night at a late hour by one of the heaviest rain storms that has occurred here in many months. The rain fell in torrents, accompanied by violent thunder and vivid flashes of lightning which struck several places. During the progress of the storm the custom house was struck and several persons were severely injured. The telephone wire running into the Webb Street Presbyterian church received a portion of the fluid and was badly injured. The wires at the Western Union telegraph office were struck by the lightning and considerably damaged and a number of the employees were painfully struck. This morning some of the wires between here and Richmond are reported down. Mr. A. C. Baker, book-keeper of the Bank of Petersburg, while walking, was knocked from his seat by the lightning, and badly stunned. A pen in his hand was melted by the fluid. A number of houses in the lower part of the city were flooded with water. In different parts of the city trees were uprooted. The rain in the adjacent counties is reported as very heavy, and the roads are badly washed.
